

We will have three presenters who will teach us why, when, and where we use dance to worship our Lord and God.

Niau Mora, a native Hawaiian, leads a group of dedicated women comprising the ministry of Ka Wai Ola Ke Akua (The Living Waters of God). The ministry exists to share the gospel through Hawaiian dance and sacred music. The group has been ministering in many churches and organizations throughout the area and in New Mexico, Arizona, and Utah. This is their sixth appearance at our Worship Dance Workshops.

Valorie Shortman will demonstrate and teach examples of Jewish dance. She likes to disciple and raise-up dancers who love to worship Yeshua, (Jesus). Worship is holy warfare in the heavenlies. God gave her the scripture Isaiah 52:7, "How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Rez Hands

Led by Laurie Olson, this group of dedicated women have been signing worship music around the area in churches, nursing homes, and events. They will demonstrate and teach signing as another tool to praise God with our bodies, to "lift up holy hands in the sanctuary and bless the Lord."
