

Erin Breit
Audit Director - Denver
Anton Collins Mitchell
Boulder * Denver * Northern Colorado* Wyoming

Professional Profile

Experience:

Erin started in public accounting in 2004 and began devoting her full attention to the Employee Benefit Plan and Nonprofit Practices in 2006. Erin has a broad base of experience and has served a variety of industries including specializing in employee benefit plan audits and nonprofit audits in a variety of industries. She has worked extensively with defined contribution plans including 5500 preparation and has works closely with her clients to help them navigate through complexities such as a change in service provider, plan mergers, spin- offs and terminations. Erin has been a valuable member of the ACM team since December of 2006 and has been recognized on a company-wide basis for her valuable contributions. She has presented at the AICPA's National Employee Benefit Plan Conference and locally to other organizations such as Finance Executives International (FEI).

Professional Affiliations:

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
Colorado Society of Certified Public Accountants (COCPA)
Board Member, Colorado Public Plan Coalition
Junior Board Member of Florence Crittenden Services

Education:

BA Accounting, Economics, Operations Quality Management, University of Maryland